X interactive course “Dermatologia Pediatrica del Mediterraneo” June 30–July 5, 2019, Suvaki Village, Pantelleria Island

Dear Editor

Congress report

In the spectacular scenery of the Pantelleria Island was held from June 30 to July 5, 2019, the 10th Interactive Meeting of Pediatric Dermatology of the Mediterranean Region.

Professors Fabio Arcangeli, Patrizio Mulas, and Mirella Milioto of the University of Rome Guglielmo Marconi (Rome, Italy).

The meeting resulted in a great success both for the high level of the scientific programme and for the unrivaled organization of the interactive format involving experienced Dermatologists and skilled Pediatricians. The social programme in the Pantelleria Island named The Black Pearl of the Mediterranean Sea was memorable.
